Adelaide Venue Management (AVM) - operators of Adelaide Convention Centre, Adelaide Entertainment Centre & Coopers Stadium - has established itself as a leading employer in South Australia's vibrant events-based tourism and hospitality industry.

Each venue is committed to delivering memorable experiences, whether through the hosting of local, national and international conferences, exhibitions and banquets at Adelaide Convention Centre, or world-class entertainment and national sporting events at Adelaide Entertainment Centre and Coopers Stadium. In addition, AVM is the proud presenting partner of concerts and functions at The Drive.

With flexible hours, an excellent paid training program and roles available across a variety of departments, we encourage applicants with a range of skills to apply.

WHAT DRIVES OUR TEAM

We work in an exciting and ever-changing industry, where no day is ever the same, and look for engaged, enthusiastic individuals, who are versatile and responsive in dealing with customer requests.

While all AVM venues enjoy solid staff retention, we do have regular intakes of casual staff. We offer stable and secure employment, including a fantastic range of entry level positions, supported by continuous training and professional development to support career progression through to senior management roles.

Individuals who demonstrate the following attributes thrive in our environment.

DYNAMIC

Exciting, Alive, Creative

RESPONSIVE

Customer focused, Timely, Can-do

KNOWLEDGEABLE

Industry Experts, Continuous Improvement, Environmentally Responsible

TRANSPARENT

Information Sharing, Honest, Accountable, Safe & Supportive

A FRIENDLY & DIVERSE TEAM

A proudly inclusive employer, AVM's workforce thrives on diversity and is made up of dedicated, professional and friendly staff from all backgrounds. We are a key driver in Aboriginal employment in the local hospitality industry, and a strong supporter of gender equity and neutrality. We provide employment for both young and mature residents, local and international students and new migrants, as well as individuals with disabilities through our partnership with Barkuma and other underrepresented sectors of our community.

Our green philosophy makes us a leader in sustainability. We have proudly implemented various special initiatives including a comprehensive food redistribution program supporting Foodbank, Ozharvest SA and Faithworks.

DELIVERING MEMORABLE EXPERIENCES

AVM venues offer a broad range of business-tourism and hospitality related roles. These positions are largely focused on event operations, food and beverage, customer service and audio-visual, along with event design, planning and management.

For those with a passion for food, we offer a variety of chef and kitchen roles, along with commercial cookery apprenticeships.

TRAINEESHIPS & APPRENTICESHIPS

AVM offers a number of traineeships and apprenticeships spanning a broad range of career paths and providing opportunity to achieve Certificate III in Hospitality and Certificate IV in Live Production and Services qualifications.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

AVM venues offer a diverse range of opportunities for local and international students seeking casual employment. We pride ourselves on providing a safe, friendly and supportive work environment, flexible rostering and competitive above award pay rate to complement student study.

With events ranging from breakfast seminars through to night time concerts and sporting matches, we're always on the lookout for applicants who have flexibility to work a variety of different shifts. We find this variety suits the student lifestyle, enabling students to effortlessly balance work and study commitments.

While previous experience in the events industry isn't essential - we offer paid on-the-job training so you can learn while still being rewarded - a 'can do' attitude is crucial, as is a willingness to learn key roles across a variety of different work areas, from food and beverage to customer service standards and back of house practices, just to name a few.

STUDENT TESTIMONIALS

"I heard a lot about Adelaide Venue Management after arriving in Adelaide. It's a great place to work and the people are really welcoming, friendly and always happy to help, just like a big family. As a student, the flexible hours are fantastic allowing me to easily balance my study and work commitments."
